

Cherry Blossoms Washington, DC

Saturday, April 1st, 2017

Springtime in Washington! The Blossom Kite Festival will occur near the Washington Monument from 10am-4:30pm. Kite makers from all over the world will be flying their creations (weather permitting). You can take the Circulator (small charge) to see the blossoms along the Potomac River and Tidal Basin. You could also visit one of the Smithsonian Museums. Bus will drop off and pick up near the Air & Space Museum.  Please note that the timing of the blooming of the cherry trees is determined by the weather.
