

Koziar's Christmas Village

Saturday, December 16, 2017

Lights, Lights and MORE lights! More than one million lights cover buildings, barns and more. Plus, it's set beside a lake which adds to the wonder. In 1948, the Koziar family decorated their home for their own enjoyment. Each year, they added more and more lights. Soon the neighbors wanted permission to see and Christmas Village was born! There are many small buildings, including a post office & bakery, that have their own displays, gift shops and Santa. There are also indoor and outdoor train displays.
